Evening Entertainment

Once the event has finished, why not head to some of the town centre and surrounding local entertainment venues!

Check out what these local venues have to offer:

Venue	Entertainment	Facebook Page
Bourton's Live Music Café Bar	5pm – Rob Pennington: Americana 6pm – Paterson: Quirky Country 7pm - Moonlight Crisis: Rock & Blues 8pm - Blind Mans Bluff: Blues	Bourton's Live Music Café Bar

Rob Pennington: Americana

Crumlin resident and southern-gothic aficionado Rob has been wandering in and out of the South Wales music scene for 20 years or more. Built of country rock, humour, and apocalyptic vocals, he delivers an engaging set of Valleys-inspired Americana that is in equal measures fun, heartfelt, and educational (OK, maybe not educational!)

Paterson: Quirky Country

Paterson is the latest incarnation of Cardiff-born, Blackwood-based singer/songwriter Georgia Paterson. Inspired by such classic and contemporary artists as Simon & Garfunkel, Imelda May, and Ashley McBryde, Paterson creates quirky Americana/Country-influenced acoustic music brimming with emotional intimacy.

Moonlight Crisis: Rock & Blues

This trio began moonlighting in their super-secret rock-blues band in 2022. Recently nominated for a Newport City Radio Live Music Award and launching their debut album in February 2024, the secret's out about their exciting live show.

Blind Mans Bluff: Blues

These are blues rockers from South Wales. They formed a few years ago from well-seasoned musicians from the local cover band scene. They still cover great rock tunes from the likes of the Animals, Gary Moore and the Stones, however, they have a respected collection of original tunes of their own. Catch them live. They rock with the best!
